AUDIT FINDINGS

NARRATIVE

The audit team proceeded to the conference room in the Administration building. The team expressed the appreciation for the opportunity to be involved with the Northwest Florida Reception Center in the PREA process. Following the entrance meeting with staff, the Warden led a tour of the Main Unit from 9:00 am to 11:00 am on July 12, 2016. The Annex was toured from 10:00 am to 12:30 pm on July 13, 2016. The Work Release Center was toured from 8:00 am to 9:30 am on July 13, 2016. The auditor went back to certain areas in the institution on July 13-14, 2016. While touring several inmates and staff were questioned about their knowledge of PREA standards, procedures for reporting, services available and their responsibilities. All staff and inmates informally interviewed during the tour acknowledged receiving training and procedures for reporting sexual abuse, sexual harassment and/or retaliation for reporting. During the tour the auditor reviewed staffing; logs; physical plant; sight lines; tested the inmate phone system for reporting allegations and institution operations. Following the tour, the auditor began the formal interviews, review of investigations, and random checks of inmate records, medical, and training records. There is a total of 40 buildings on the Main Unit grounds and a total of five buildings at the Work Release Center. The areas toured at the Main Unit were a total of three multi occupancy cell housing unit, five open bay dormitory housing units and various departments within the secured perimeter. One cell unit is located directly behind the medical/classification building and is utilized for segregation. This is Y dorm and it houses 90 inmates. I dorm at the Annex is utilized for segregation housing. I dorm has a capacity of 240 beds. Segregation cells are double bunked. The Inmates are placed into Administrative Confinement pending disciplinary charges, pending protection needs (short term, no long term at this facility) and pending investigation.

All inmates are received at the Annex. The Annex transfers to satellite facilities. There have been 3409 inmates assigned to Northwest Florida Reception Center during the previous twelve months for 72 hours or more. There were 1798 inmates assigned for 30 days or more. The custody level of the inmate population is close to community. There are 451 staff positions assigned. There have been 116 staff hired during the past twelve months.

Prior to our arrival for the audit, a listing of all inmates by housing assignment and a staff listing by shift assignments of staff currently working with inmates was requested. A list of all inmates currently housed at the facility that have had a PREA case was also requested. From these listings, one inmate from each housing unit, two segregated inmates, two who reported sexual abuse or harassment and two listed as non-heterosexual were interviewed. Additionally, two inmate with limited English speaking proficiency were interviewed utilizing the language line. There are no youthful inmates assigned to the facilities. At the time of the audit there were 53 self reported gay/bisexual inmates and no transgender or intersex inmates assigned to the facility. There are no LGBT inmates assigned to the Work Release Center. A total of 48 random inmate interviews were conducted. The iBAS identification system identified fourteen potential predators and two potential victims. There were no sight or hearing impaired inmates assigned to the facility. 21 random staff interviews were conducted and included staff from all work shifts and all areas of the facilities. The Specialized Staff Interviews included 22 interviews for staff designated as: Intermediate/Higher-Level, Medical, Mental-Health, Contractor, Investigative, Screening for Risk of Victimization and Abusiveness, Supervisors in Segregation, Incident Review Team, Monitors Retaliation, First Responder Security, First Responder Non-Security, Intake Staff and a Volunteer. DESCRIPTION OF FACILITY CHARACTERISTICS

The Northwest Florida Reception Center (NWFRC) is a close custody correctional facility that is governed by the Florida Department of Corrections. The institution is in the central part of the Florida panhandle between the towns of Chipley and Panama City. The primary mission of NWFRC is to house general population offenders and to serve as the reception center for sixteen surrounding counties. The facility accommodates custody levels that range from community to close custody, psychological grades one through three and medical grades one through four. There are 541 positions allotted to this facility and 83 positions were vacant during the audit. Several staff recently attended a recruitment event in the community to seek applicants. The facility consists of 64 building and is located on 321 acres of land. The maintenance building, warehouse, water treatment plant, work squad office, canine office and a tool room are all located outside the secure perimeter of the compound. The Warden's Office, Inspector's Office, Key and Lock Office and Arsenal are in the administrative building. There is a staff housing area, which consists of 24 mobile home lots, the Warden's residence and two duplex units for the Associate Wardens, Colonel and the Major.

Movement in and out of the facility is frequent. The count on day one of the review was 1184 at the Main Unit and 1294 at the Annex. On day three the count of the Main Unit was 1286 and 1112 at the Annex.

The Main Unit, constructed in 1994, is divided into three areas designated at the first, second and third compounds. The first compound provides services such as medical, classification, food service, chapel services, academic/vocational services, property room, visiting and laundry. The Main Unit has inmates housed in three secure cell housing units and five open bay housing units. A-E are open bay housing units. F, G and H are butterfly secure cell housing units. On the right side of the compound is A-E housing units. On the left side are secure cell housing units housing close custody inmates. Each secure unit houses 224 inmates. The open bay housing units house from 142-144 inmates and have three inmate canteens, two barber shops and a caustic supply room. Administrative and Disciplinary Confinement dorms are in this area. The third compound is a wellness/recreation area and consists of one building that is used for wellness education and other indoor activities. A volleyball court, basketball court, walking track, and exercise bars are available in this area.

NWFRC Annex is adjacent to the Main Unit and opened in 2005. The Annex houses general population offenders and serves as the reception center. The compound is divided into three sections designated as the front support, rear support and main compound. The front support consists of medical, classification, security, dental, infirmary and chapel. The housing units are located on the main compound. The recreation yards are segregated into four quadrants next to the housing units. Each recreation area serves two housing units. The rear support building houses the dining hall, property, transport and receiving, education, a medical room and inside grounds office. There is one manned center tower at this facility.

The design capacity for the Main Unit is 912. The lawful capacity is 1259. The population at the time of the audit for the Main Unit was 1263. The average daily population for the Main Unit for the previous twelve months was 1258. The age range of the inmates assigned to the Main Unit is from 18 to 77 years of age. The average age of the inmate assigned to the facility is 39 years and four months of age. The average length of stay is one year and one month for the Main Unit. The average length of stay for the Annex is five years and five months. There are 76 inmates that were assigned to the facility prior to August 20, 2012.

One component of internal security for the Annex is made up of a central tower, located in the middle of the compound; this tower has the responsibility of visual observation and electronic control of all internal and external gates. The tower staff controls movement into the institution via the sally port, the front entrance, and inside movement on the compound. The first building entering the Annex compound is the front support building housing the security headquarters, medical and classification department. The rear or end of the compound houses the back-support building housing food service, education and transfer and receiving. Housing in the compound is divided into four mini-compounds overseen by a central tower. North Florida Reception Center Annex has inmates housed in six open-bay dormitories and two secure housing units. I and J dormitories are Secure Cell Housing Units. J-dorm has 240 beds utilized as segregation housing. I Dorm (122 cells) is secure housing for level four and five housing. The configuration of the open bay housing is a divided dormitory with center located officer station. Each side of the dorm has 86 beds per side. Secure cell housing configuration is separated into four quads. The total capacity of each is 240 inmates. Two of the cells can accommodate the housing of disabled persons. The front two quads house 56 inmates in each quad. The back two quads house 64 inmates in each quad. I-dormitory is a secure cell housing unit utilized as a Confinement or Segregation Unit. The unit houses disciplinary and administrative confinement inmates.

Perimeter security includes two-armed vehicle rovers, which are operated on both shifts. The fences are twelve feet high with one roll of razor wire inside the inner fence and twelve rolls of razor wire inside the outer fence. The fences have two types of fence alarms; one is a micro phonic stellar system attached to the inner perimeter fence which detects any climbing or cutting sensations on the fence fabric. The second is a microwave system, located midway between the inner and outer fences, which detects movement.

North Florida Reception Center Correctional Institution has a satellite facility, Panama City Work Release. Panama City Work Release was originally the Panama City Road Prison and was opened in the mid 1930's. The mission was changed July 1, 1973 to Work Release. The design capacity is 70 with lawful capacity of 84. The population on the day of the audit was 81.

The Training Center is a large modern oblong building approximately 115 feet by 45 feet that is well equipped. There is a large open classroom/assembly area, an overhead projector and computer terminals available for use. The outdoor pistol range accommodates pistol, shot gun and rifle firing and has various firing positions.

The facility operates at Level I staffing levels. Procedure 602.030 states Level II posts are essential to the daily normal operation of a facility. Operating at Level II allows all activities and programs to be marginally staffed. Level I posts are critical for the daily operation of a shift. The post chart shows one sergeant and one officer per housing unit. One of the two is then assigned secondary duties to provide security coverage for the yard, recreation, dining hall or canteen lines. This leaves one officer on the unit. They are assigned to the officer station. Routines rounds are not being made due to level I staffing. TEA's are not allowed to directly supervise inmates. Daily housing logs reflect shift supervisors making unannounced rounds on all shifts.

(1) SECURITY STAFFING LEVELS:

Level I posts are critical for the daily operation of a shift. Operating at Level I may include limiting certain activities such as recreation or work squads. (The Duty Warden must grant her/his approval to eliminate or delay any of these daily activities.) Northwest Florida Reception Center is an adult male facility. Policy states shall not conduct cross-gender strip searches or cross-gender visual body cavity searches except in exigent circumstances; and shall document all cross-gender strip searches and cross-gender visual body cavity searches. Staff is trained how to conduct cross-gender pat-down searches, and searches of transgender and intersex inmates, in a professional and respectful manner, and in the least intrusive manner possible, consistent with security needs. Through interviews of staff and inmates it was determined staff do not search or physically examine a transgender or intersex inmates for the sole purpose of determining the inmate's genital status, and only medical staff if needed would make that determination. The language line is available for use by staff when a staff translator is not available. There are posters in English and Spanish posted next to the telephones. All volunteers and contractors who have contact with inmates have been trained on their responsibility under Department policies. In the past twelve months, there have been 105 volunteers and 88 contractors who have been trained in the agency's policies. The auditor reviewed contractor and volunteer training records, each have signed they understand the PREA training they received. The facility maintains documentation of volunteer training in the chaplain's office. Medical maintains their training files in the medical department. Volunteers and contract staff interviewed discussed the agency zero policy and articulated how to respond to an allegation of sexual assault.

Departmental policy requires that all inmates receive PREA information upon arrival and PREA education as part of the Reception and Orientation process. During reception inmates are provided information through a PREA pamphlet and inmate rule book (both available in English and Spanish) that explains the agency's zero tolerance policy regarding sexual abuse and sexual harassment; and how to report such incidents. During the intake process inmates view the PREA video and are given time to ask questions and staff stop the video and emphasize the points of zero tolerance and how to protect themselves from abuse and harassment. During orientation they receive additional training which expands on the previous information provided in the pamphlet and handbook. Inmates acknowledge receiving the PREA information in writing. Posters and inmate handbooks are provided to inmates or posted in the housing units in formats accessible to all inmates. Information provided included: inmate rights; how to report; what to expect after you report; and how to protect yourself against sexual assault. During the tour and interviews most inmates acknowledged the information being provided upon arrival and orientation. They definitely knew the agency zero tolerance policy; the difference between sexual abuse and sexual harassment; and that they have the right to be free from retaliation for reporting such incidents. A random review of inmate records showed that inmates acknowledge through signature they have received and understood the training. During the last twelve months 3409 inmates were given this information at intake. There were 1798 inmates assigned for 30 days or longer receiving both the intake information and complete inmate orientation.

Departmental policy requires the inspector's receive specialized training in addition to the general education provided to all employees. The Inspector completed the MOSS Group training. The MOSS Group special training curriculum for Inspectors was reviewed and found to cover all requirements. The training included techniques for interviewing sexual abuse victims, proper use of Miranda and Garrity warnings, sexual abuse evidence collection in confinement settings, and the criteria and evidence required to substantiate a case for administrative action or prosecution referral. The interview of the inspector demonstrated she understood how to conduct a sexual abuse investigation in a confinement setting and what her role was. The agency maintains documentation that the Inspector has received both the general and investigative PREA training. Interviews with the inspector verified his knowledge of conducting investigations.

Medical and mental health practitioners who work regularly at Northwest Florida Reception Center are trained. The facility medical staff does not conduct forensic examinations. The Department has an aggressive initiative to reduce in-cell violence between inmates. The focal point of this initiative is to ensure inmates considered predators or potential predators are housed appropriately. Inmates that can be considered a danger to others should not be housed in cells with inmates who can be considered potential victims. To that end, a major system identifies these types of inmates as well as inmates that may be sexual aggressors or victims. The system is IBAS (Inmate Behavioral Assessment Scale). The Department utilizes a complex web system designed by the Bureau of Classification Management to identify potential inmate predators, prey and those inmates at risk for sexual violence either as an aggressor or as a victim. The classification staff completes the assessment generally the day of arrival but not to exceed 72 hours of arrival. The questions and criteria that are considered include (1) if the inmate has a mental, physical, or developmental disability; (2) The age of the inmate; (3) the physical build of the inmate; (4) whether the inmate has previously been incarcerated; (5) Whether the inmate's criminal history is exclusively nonviolent; (6) whether the inmate has prior convictions for sex offenses against an adult or child; (7) whether the inmate is or is perceived to be gay, lesbian, bisexual, transgender, intersex, or gender nonconforming; (8) whether the inmate has previously experienced sexual victimization; (9) the inmate's own perception of vulnerability; and (10) whether the inmate is detained solely for civil immigration purposes. The classification and medical staff determines if the inmate is perceived to be LGBTI. Inmates may not be disciplined for refusing to answer any of the questions, or for not disclosing complete information. Criteria to include past violent convictions, violent disciplinary reports, STG affiliation, release dates, as well height and weight differentials are considered when housing inmates. The housing officer must review and approve any bed changes made.

The auditor interviewed members of the security staff and classification staff to question them on how the iBAS system is used to determine work/housing and education assignments. Each explained how it was used in detail considering victimization among other things. The placement of transgender and/or intersex inmates is done only after a Review Committee has reviewed the case. Transgender/Intersex inmates receive a face-to-face review within fourteen days of arrival, biannually and anytime in which their program assignment, work assignment, discipline record as well as their views with respect to their safety is questioned. Additionally, inmates who are identified as at high risk for perpetration or victimization are monitored through the iBAS system, to ensure inmates are not assigned to work, housing or education assignments in a manner that might increase their propensity for abuse. There are no transgender/intersex inmates assigned to Northwest Florida Reception Center. Staff interviewed acknowledged transgender/intersex inmates would be given an opportunity to shower separately.

Department of Corrections provides multiple ways for inmates to report sexual abuse, sexual harassment, and retaliation by other inmates or staff for reporting sexual abuse and sexual harassment to include anonymously upon request. Inmates can call the OIG hotline. Inmates can also report to staff verbally or in writing. Departmental website provides for third party reporting. Interviews of inmates, staff and review of policies, inmate handbooks and information posted next to the inmate phones in the housing areas verified the inmates have multiple internal ways to report incidents of abuse or harassment. During the tour the phones were tested. Examples of inmate reporting through different means were reviewed when investigative cases were reviewed. Staff accepts reports made verbally, in writing, anonymously, and from third parties, and are promptly documented by incident report. Staff training covers the ways for staff to report sexual abuse and sexual harassment of inmates. During interviews some staff knew they could report sexual abuse and harassment of inmates to the Inspector General via the hotline. Posters and other documents on display throughout the facility also explain the reporting procedures. The PREA pamphlet and the inmate handbook address this standard. Department of Corrections does not house inmates solely for civil immigration.

Also on Form DC1-303 the third party filer shall check the box next to Third Party Grievance Alleging Sexual Abuse. If this statement is not included in the grievance and if the third party box is not checked, the grievance shall be responded to. The Department has third party reporting of sexual abuse or sexual harassment through the public website via third party grievances and the citizens complaint form. Inmate and staff acknowledged both during interviews. The third party grievance form is available online at www.dc.state.fl.us/oth/inmates/prea-grievances.html. The citizens complaint form can be found at <http://www.dc.state.fl.us/apps/igcomplaint.asp>. Information is also posted near the telephones that provide the inmates a telephone number to make third party reports, along with numbers to tell family and friends to make third party reports. Interview of inmates demonstrated they knew how third party reporting could be accomplished. Family members or other individuals may report verbally or in writing any time they have knowledge or suspect an offender has been sexually abused, sexually harassed or requires protection. Offenders interviewed were aware of this method of reporting.

The facility reports all allegations of sexual abuse and sexual harassment, including third party and anonymous reports, to the Inspector General via the MINS reporting system. Unless otherwise precluded by Federal, State, or local law, medical and mental health practitioners shall be required to report sexual abuse pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section and to inform inmates of the practitioner's duty to report, and the limitations of confidentiality, at the initiation of services. Review of investigative files; and interviews of staff and inmates verified staff immediately report any knowledge, suspicion, or information regarding an incident of sexual abuse or harassment; and that staff does not reveal information related to a sexual abuse report other than to people authorize to discuss the report. Random interviews with staff revealed that staff is very aware of their responsibilities to report incidents of sexual abuse or harassment and know not to reveal any information about a sexual abuse incident to anyone other than to the extent necessary. Interviews with inmates and staff did not reveal any incident of sexual abuse or harassment not reported to the Inspector General.

Security staff immediately employs protection measures as the information is passed to the Shift Supervisor, Chief of Security and Warden. In the past twelve months, there were 40 times that an inmate was removed from population so the facility could determine whether the inmate was subject to substantial risk of imminent sexual abuse. The facility made the determinations immediately less than one hour of learning of the threat.

Procedure clearly specifies procedures to respond to an allegation of sexual abuse for both security and non-security staff. Random interviews with staff confirm both security and non-security staff knew what to do upon learning an inmate was sexually abused to include separating the alleged victim and abuser; how to preserve the crime scene; and what actions inmates should not take in order not to destroy physical evidence including, as appropriate, not washing, brushing teeth, changing clothes, urinating, defecating, smoking, drinking, or eating. Staff was very cognizant about ensuring safety and well-being of an alleged victim while insuring that physical evidence is not destroyed or contaminated. Review of investigative files further demonstrated security and non-security staff knew what to do as the first responder to a sexual assault. Training records and staff interviews confirm the staff is trained as first responders. In the past twelve months there were 93 allegations of sexual abuse. In each case the staff member receiving the allegation separated the alleged victim and abuser. Two cases were within the time period that allowed for collection of physical evidence.

Departmental procedure describes the policy and practice to be followed to ensure that there is no retaliation against any inmate or staff member who reported sexual abuse or sexual harassment. The Assistant Warden of Programs is the staff member charged to ensure compliance to this policy. Classification staff monitors the conduct or treatment of inmates who reported sexual abuse and who were reported to have suffered sexual abuse to see if there are any changes that may suggest possible retaliation by inmates or staff. Classification staff receives an appointment (IM05) to interview the inmate every 30 days. They conduct periodic checks up to 90 days but beyond if the Assistant Warden of Programs feels the situation requires it. With inmate retaliation the Classification staff looks at inmate disciplinary reports, housing, and or program status changes. The Assistant Warden of Programs monitors staff by reviewing performance reviews or reassignments and shift changes.

The Department of Corrections Office of Inspector General conducts investigations into allegations of sexual abuse and sexual harassment, it does so thoroughly, and objectively for all allegations, including third-party and anonymous reports. Third party and anonymous reports are treated no different than a first person report. The Inspector conducts all investigations immediately on being notified of the allegation. Based on his interview the credibility of an alleged victim, suspect, or witness is assessed on an individual basis and not determined by the person's status as inmate or staff. The Inspector's training records and interview demonstrated the special training they received from the Moss Group and the Department trainers. Inspectors are responsible for gathering and preserving direct and circumstantial evidence, including any available physical and DNA evidence and any available electronic monitoring data; shall interview alleged victims, suspected perpetrators, and witnesses; and shall review prior complaints and reports of sexual abuse involving the suspected perpetrator. When the preponderance of evidence appears to support criminal prosecution, the Office of the Inspector General conducts compelling interviews only after consulting with the state attorney as to whether compelling interviews may be an obstacle for subsequent criminal prosecution. A substantiated allegation of conduct that appears to be criminal is referred for prosecution. Administrative investigations include an effort to determine whether staff actions or failures to act contributed to the abuse and document in written reports that include a description of the physical and testimonial evidence, the reasoning behind credibility assessments, and investigative facts and findings. Criminal investigations document in a written report that contains a thorough description of physical, testimonial, and documentary evidence and attaches copies of all documentary evidence where feasible.

The auditor reviewed completed investigative files at Northwest Florida Reception Center. In each case file was written notice of notification where the inmate was informed of the outcome of the investigations whether it had been determined to be substantiated, unsubstantiated, or unfounded. There have been no substantiated or unsubstantiated complaints of sexual abuse committed by a staff member against an inmate in the facility in the past twelve months. If there were any substantiated allegations of sexual abuse by a staff member, the inmate would be informed in writing to include whenever: the staff member is no longer posted within the inmate's unit; the staff member is no longer employed at the facility; the department learns that the staff member has been indicted on a charge related to sexual abuse within the facility; or the agency learns that the staff member has been convicted on a charge related to sexual abuse within the facility. If the inmate was alleged to have been sexually abused by another inmate, the Inspector informs the alleged victim whenever: the alleged abuser has been indicted on a charge related to sexual abuse within the facility; or been convicted on a charge related to sexual abuse within the facility. There were 122 cases that the inmate was notified of the outcome of the investigation.

Staff is subject to disciplinary sanctions up to and including termination for violating sexual abuse or sexual harassment policies. Termination is the presumptive disciplinary sanction for staff who has engaged in sexual abuse. Disciplinary sanctions for violations of policies relating to sexual abuse or sexual harassment (other than actually engaging in sexual abuse) are commensurate with the nature and circumstances of the acts committed, the staff member's disciplinary history, and the sanctions imposed for comparable offenses by other staff with similar histories.

All terminations for violations of agency sexual abuse or sexual harassment policies, or resignations by staff who would have been terminated if not for their resignation, are reported to law enforcement agencies, unless the activity was clearly not criminal, and to any relevant licensing bodies

The Warden reported that there have been no allegations of sexual abuse by contractors or volunteers. Interviews with contractors and volunteers confirmed they were aware of the zero tolerance policy for engaging in sexual abuse or sexual harassment of inmates or staff. There have been no issues with any contractors or volunteers at Northwest Florida Reception Center.

Inmate handbook states "There is no such thing as legal consensual sex in prison. The Department of Corrections policy and the law prohibit sexual behavior between inmates". Disciplinary policy stipulates that inmate-on-inmate sexual activity (not forced) will result in a disciplinary report be written for violation of 9-7 Sex acts or 9-18 unauthorized physical contact involving inmates. This report results in a disciplinary hearing being held on the inmate within the facility. Inmates perpetrators are disciplined and/or reviewed for close management if the OIG determines a sexual abuse case is substantiated. For the purpose of disciplinary action, a report of sexual abuse made in good faith based upon a reasonable belief that the alleged conduct occurred shall not constitute falsely reporting an incident or lying, even if an investigation does not establish evidence sufficient to substantiate the allegation.

There was one case that was sustained where the perpetrator was reviewed and approved for Close Management.

The incident review team is made up of the Assistant Warden of Programs, Chief of Security and the Classification Supervisor. The review team gets input from line supervisors, Inspectors, and medical or mental health practitioners. The auditor reviewed two incident reviews. The incident review was used in determining causes and better policies and practices to better prevent, detect, or respond to sexual abuse. The Department has a PREA after action review form that addresses all elements of the standard. Incident review team members were interviewed and were very knowledgeable of the process. The facility may include agency staff in the discussion during the incident review. During the previous twelve months sixteen incident reviews were completed.

The Department maintains reviews and collects data as needed from all available incident-based documents, including reports, investigation files, and sexual abuse incident reviews. Data is collected from a number of sources, but main source is Management Information Notification System (MINS). The MINS system includes, at a minimum, the data necessary to answer all questions from the most recent version of the Survey of Sexual Violence (SSV) conducted by the Department of Justice. The PREA Coordinator has access to information in MINS and gets other information upon requests to OIG. The information is aggregated for all to be placed in Annual Report. The report was completed and provided to DOJ September 2015.
