

Community Supervision Releases

Summary of Community Supervision Releases

The number of offenders released from community supervision in FY 2016-17 decreased by 1.7% from the previous year, from 84,919 in FY 2015-16 to 83,474 in FY 2016-17. Almost 37,782 (45.3%) completed their sentences successfully, while 21% were revoked for a technical violation, and another 15.0% were revoked because they committed a new offense. The remaining releases were due to court action, pardon, death or other state cases returned. Most releases are male (72.6), white (53.8%), ages 25-34 (36.0%) and had never been on community supervision before (52.0%).

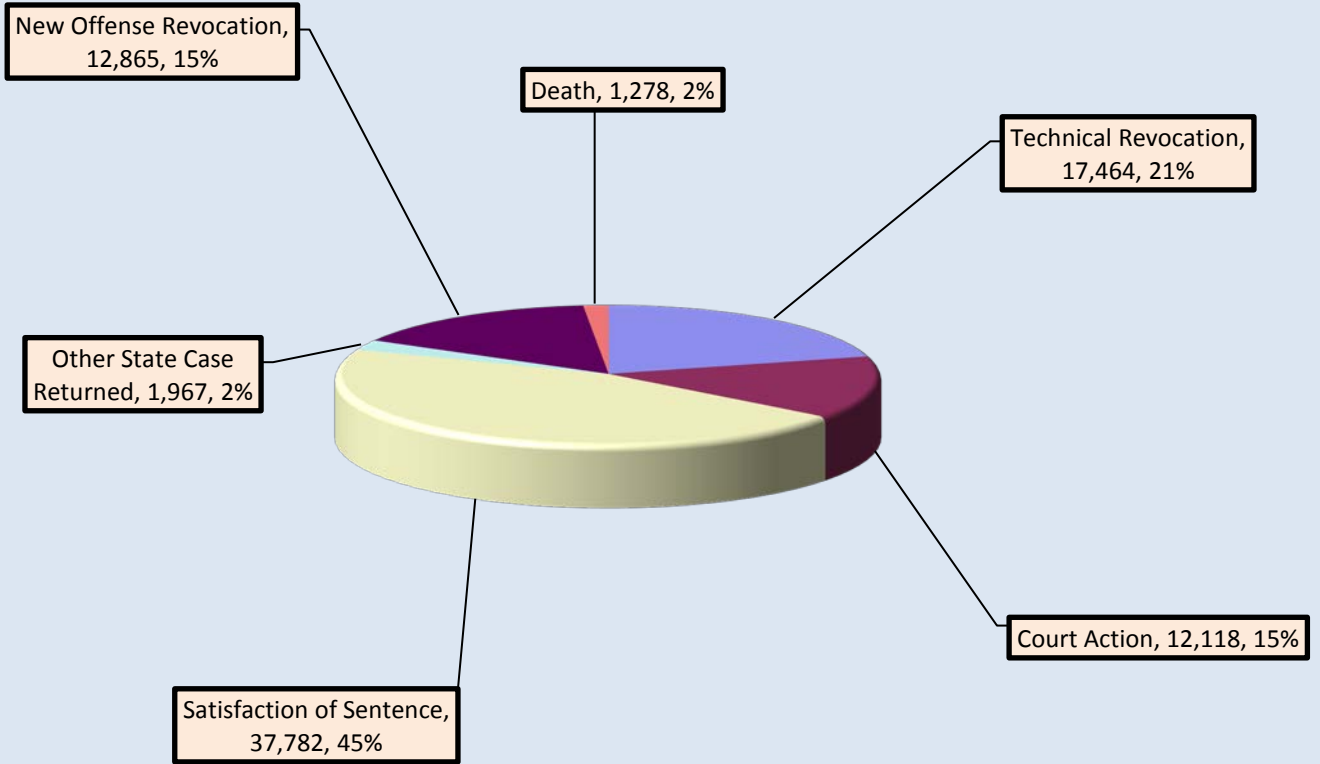

The community supervision release population consists of all offenders permanently removed from the Florida Department of Corrections from a specific term of supervision due to satisfaction of the sentence, a pardon, return to another state, death, revocation, or other court action.
